

Plug mains lead into power supply case.

Plug long link cable into first letter.

Plug short link cables into remaining letters, connecting each letter to the next.

Turn power supply on using switch on case and turn mains power on.

